

A personal message from Prince Philip

Patron of the Squash Rackets Association

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

More and more people are discovering the pleasure of playing squash. Like all games someone has to attend to the administration and the business of keeping people informed about what is going on. I hope the "Squash Player" will help to promote the game and keep players and clubs in touch with events all over the Squash world.

October 1971.